Glue Crazy

I would like to thank everyone for placing their confidence in me as president of the Regina plastic scale modellers club.

Now before all you guys who weren't at the June elections meeting start claspings your heads and moaning "Not another car guy", I would like it known that, although I do have a preference for plastic car kits, I do have a number of airplane (fixed and rotary) kits and even boats (on and under the sea) wind, atomic and fuel powered, so I don't consider myself to be a "car guy" per se.

Remember this is our club and I am just another member, somebody has to steer and somebody has to navigate, etc. I became a member first of all because I enjoy building plastic and secondly to have fun doing something I enjoy. I have learned so much from all of you as you shared your techniques and knowledge. I will need your assistance and your input to make this a fun and happy experience. We need your continued participation on all levels of club functions. Remember these are all volunteer positions but are vital and essential to our continued success.

Don't keep your hobby a secret, tell a friend, better yet bring a friend to the next meeting. Remember those who can help at the paint recycling day need your support.

Well that's all from my bench this month, build lots, for Expo is just around the corner.

Curfew James.

2004 Majestics Model Contest

A total of 14 contestants registered for the contest, bringing along with them 72 entries, one of whom entered 14 models alone. We had 2 junior and 12 adult contestants. With only two youth contestants, and very young ones at that, the judges decided some creativity was in order. The Junior entry was awarded to the collaborative effort of 3 year old Erica James and her dad Leith. The intermediate entry was given to Ron Gall's son Robert possibly because he was the senior of the two youngsters.

Message from the Editor

Well, a year has just about passed, and my inaugural term as Antenna editor is about to arrive. I must say it has been fun, with a few downs, but with many more ups.

First of all, I would like to thank everyone for their help and support in producing the Antenna. The quality of the Antenna is for the large part completely dependent upon what I receive for material, and each kudo I have received is due in part to those that send me articles, pictures and the like. In essence, the more that I have to choose from, the better the end result for you, the members.

Being editor has given me the chance to become much more familiar with all of the members. Before I knew but a few names, now I know almost everyone by name.

One thing I have tried to do is avoid bias. Hopefully the Antenna has provided a balanced coverage with autos, aircraft, armour and so forth. I must admit that sometimes the coverage does lean toward one area, though I can assure you that it is not because of any bias on my part, but is quite often the direct result of what I have to work with.

For example - I now take digital photos at any general meeting I attend. Sometimes I get many acceptable shots, sometimes not. If my pictures are not so good, I then move on to the pictures I have received from others, and that is where I may be forced to be more creative in my coverage. I have noticed that car guys take pictures of cars, armour guys take pictures of armour, and so forth. What this means is that if all I have is armour photos, then an Antenna issue may become a bit heavy (pun intended!) in its coverage.

And I would like to remind all those that receive the Antenna via email, to please keep an eye on your account and its space. Though it does not happen often, I do get the odd return due to an account being over quota. I try to keep the Antenna to less than 1.5 megabytes in size, so it would be a good idea for email recipients to keep this much space free in their account especially around publication time. I try to get the Antenna issues out the week before the next General Meeting, so if you do keep your email box quite full, try to free some space a week or two previous to the next general meeting to ensure that you receive the Antenna and to help avoid over quota problems. If you don't get an Antenna, and you should, email me at regina\_scale\_modelers@yahoo.com.

So to finish, thanks everyone who has contributed to the Antenna, and see you in September....

Al

Paint Recycle Day Reminder

The City of Regina is continuing its summer paint recycling program again this year. The Regina Scale Modellers have been a supporter of this endeavour for a few years now. This year's date is Saturday, August 14, from 8:30am until 12:00 noon at the NE corner of the Walmart parking lot in the Southland Mall.

All volunteers should arrive by 8:00am for a short safety meeting and information session. Although we have done this for a few years now, it is always nice to get a refresher of what is going to happen.

The City of Regina will provide work gloves and white suits as well as refreshments, such as coffee, water and juices for the event. Plus as an added bonus this year, the City will also provide us with brochures with the RSM logo, web address and email address on them that we can distribute to those patiently waiting in line. The brochures will make their debut at the Saskatchewan Airshow on June 13.

So, if you can, make plans to attend, and get some fresh air, some exercise and some free refreshments.

Regina Flying Club display

As is our custom, RSM set up a display for the annual Regina Flying Club's open house and in keeping with this year's norm, a dull and dreary day greeted all those attending the open house this year. Providing kits were from Dave Porter, Neil Hill, Patrick Elkington, and Len Schmidt.

RSM at the Rocky Mountain Model Club Model Contest 2004

The 10th annual Rocky Mountain Model Club model contest was held on May 22nd, 2004 over the Victoria Day holiday weekend. A small, but powerful, contingent of RSM members made the trek to Calgary. After the dust had settled, RSM members walked away with a variety of awards. A perusal of the Rocky Mountain Model Club's web site provided the following (I have modified the original info where I know more about the entry than was supplied on the web site):

June 4, 2004 General Meeting

Attendance at the June general meeting was a bit sparse. Those that did show were Cam Barker, John Buchon, Ryan Cunningham, Larry Draper, Patrick Elkington, Michael Evans, Jim Feeley, Robert Gall and dad Ron Gall, Curfew James, Leith James, Dave Kapp, Kevin Krienke, James Lory, Gordon MacDonald, Chris Martin, Peter Maw, Tim Maw, Bryan Sinclair, Gene Stacyszyn, Rob Wheeler and Darin Wielgoz.

Election for club officers was held. Moving into the president's chair previously occupied by Ron Gall is Curfew James. Our new Vice President is Kevin Krienke who is replacing Larry Draper. Leith James remains as treasurer, but he is now flying solo, while yours truly remains as Antenna editor.

Missed from last month's Antenna was the announcement of a new member, Jim Feeley of Regina. Jim becomes our 46th member.

2004 Moose Jaw Airshow

From what I have heard, this year's edition of the Moose Jaw airshow was a success as far as the RSM is concerned.

Once again we were set up in the commons, and traffic was quite steady throughout the day. Members bringing kits or who were present at the show included Kevin Krienke, Len Schmidt, Dave Porter, James Lory, Michael Evans, Frank Turgeon, Gord McDonald and Lyle Frost.
